"Get me to Peru with Camps International"

I've been given the once in a lifetime opportunity to travel to Peru in 2027, volunteering in partnership with my school and Camps International to deliver on local challenges.

In Peru we'll be spending 4 weeks helping out with community, environmental and sanitation projects such as building classrooms in rural areas.

To get to there I first need to raise £5000!

Join me for two events this year:
